Spacemen 'Ready' For Big Adventure

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The man who will float alone in the heavens Thursday, and his space buddy who will pilot him there, started the last day before flight today with good news and great expectations.

Command pilot James A. McDivitt said: "We've got a good spacecraft, and it looks like we're going to have a good mission. We're ready."

Blastoff is scheduled for 9 a.m. (EST).

"We" are McDivitt and fellow Air Force Maj. Edward H. White II — the man who will step out of the Gemini 4 spacecraft and waltz in weightlessness on their second orbit of the earth.

There was the chance, too, that these two rookie American astronauts would get close enough to their booster rocket on their maneuvering early orbits to enable White to repeat the booster during his weightless walk.

Flight Plan Flexible

The space agency had said earlier that they might get as close as 20 feet to the booster. But mission director Christopher C. Kraft said that "there is nothing holy about 20 feet."

Would the mission last four days as intended? Kraft said that the decision would be made sometime after the first 24 hours of flight — when the astronauts had a chance to evaluate their fuel supply for their maneuvering jets, and experts looked at the decay of the orbit.

It was a demonstration of the flexibility of the flight plan.

There was no hurry about the decision, Kraft indicated, partly because space-flight officials wanted the astronauts to recover from the space-walk maneuver.

The prospect for their nearly 98-hour, 62-orbit flight were put in glowing terms Tuesday by a mission review panel of experts. "We couldn't look better," said Kraft.

Weather Outlook Good

These men are "in as high a state of readiness as any crew I have ever seen," said Dr. Charles A. Berry, chief flight physician who has watched over the health of Mercury and Gemini astronauts.

The Titan 2 rocket that will propel the astronauts into space was listed as ready, as was the spacecraft.

Preflight countdown was scheduled to start at 2 p.m. today. Propellant loading was set for 9 p.m.

Need Millions, Governor Says

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney told legislators today that unless they provide $58 million in new revenue for the coming two fiscal years, he will not sign pending appropriations bills.

The governor said the State Treasury surplus will hit at least $122 million by June 30 — $18 million more than he forecast earlier. But he declared that spending bills which have passed either the House or Senate total $846 million — $58 million more than he recommended in his budget.

The first American astronaut, Alan B. Shepard, now in charge of training said: "In my considered opinion, McDivitt and White are trained and ready for the Gemini 4 mission."

The two astronauts have had 65 hours in the spacecraft, 150 hours in Gemini mission simulations.

House Takes Up 20 Senate Bills

LANSING (AP) — Rested from a long holiday weekend, the House started its study of Senate bills today. It has 20 days in which to work on, pass or defeat the measures.

State representatives went home late Friday night after a week of sessions that lasted until midnight. When the hours were tallied, House members found they had spent more than 60 hours in session, not counting some time devoted to committee meetings and party caucuses.

Friday was the deadline for passage of all bills in the House of origin.

Rep. Einar Erlandsen, D-Escanaba, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, said his committee will start hearing last-minute pleas from state agencies who feel they need more money than the Senate appropriated for their operations in the coming fiscal year.

"We plan to give them a hearing," Erlandsen said, "after all, this is their last chance to be heard."

"But," he added, "we don't anticipate changing the Senate bills to any great extent, unless we find some obvious mistakes."

The House met briefly Tuesday night, and recessed for committee meetings.

The House, which voted the legislature a $5,000 pay raise last week, received a Senate resolution calling for a study of legislative salaries. It referred the resolution to the House Policy Committee.

Lincoln Picture On Cuban Stamp

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A new Cuban postage stamp bearing Abraham Lincoln's picture has been noted by exiles receiving mail from home.

The 13-centavo stamp, used for mail abroad, carries this Lincoln quotation in Spanish: "You can fool all the people some of the time, some of the people all the time, but not all the people all the time."

This was interpreted here as a jab by Fidel Castro at U.S. international policy.

Ban On Union Shops Skipped As GOP Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican policymakers advised President Johnson today to call a conference "of such nations as will join us" in battling communism in Viet Nam.

They said the Democratic President also should press for joint efforts to aid South Viet Nam economically and socially.

The GOP leaders accused the Johnson administration of failing to enforce both the letter and the spirit of civil rights laws.

The recommendations were issued by the Republican Coordinating Committee, a 23-member council of GOP leaders created to spell out party policy.

They skirted the explosive issue of state right-to-work laws, the union shop bans Johnson wants repealed.

But they did call for a look at private and public steps to end employment discrimination by both labor and management.

The tipoff on the GOP move came Tuesday when former Sen. Barry Goldwater, who once advocated a national law banning union shops, said he would not insist that the Republican Coordinating Committee declare itself against repeal.

Goldwater, the 1964 GOP presidential nominee, said he believes that political realities will keep some Republicans from declaring themselves advocates of such legislation.

Sen. Barry Goldwater said he was not pressing the point at the committee's closed session.

Three more sections of GOP policy were due today from National Chairman Ray C. Bliss and the party's congressional leaders, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen and Rep. Gerald R. Ford.

They will be preliminary declarations on job opportunities, foreign affairs and civil rights — approved Tuesday by the coordinating committee.

All three are the handiwork of party task forces set up to study the issues.

A job opportunities study group headed by Charles H. Percy of Illinois found itself divided as soon as it took up the union shop issue.

Johnson has called for repeal of section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act, which authorizes state laws banning the union shop which require all employees to join unions. Nineteen states have such laws.

Goldwater contends they are morally and constitutionally right.

Little Open Boat Will Sail Course Of Captain Bligh

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Navigator Doug Olifent, 43, sailed in an 18-foot open boat today in an attempt to repeat Capt. William Bligh's 3,618-mile voyage from Tofua, in the Tonga Islands, to Timor.

Olifent's two-masted Bird of Jono has a 5-horsepower motor and a radio transmitter and receiver. He will use the motor until he reaches Tofua but not on the stretch that Bligh sailed. He hopes to cover that section in 48 days.

Bligh and 18 seamen sailed from Tofua to Timor in 1789 after being cast adrift in a 23-foot open boat by the Bounty mutineers.

Boost Foreseen For Lakes Area

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., predicts a regional commission to "help revitalize the economy of the upper Great Lakes will be created within six months."

He linked his statement Tuesday to Senate passage of the Public Works and Economic Development Bill, which contains language authorizing such regional commissions.

Nelson said he was certain the provision would win House approval.

The upper Great Lakes region embraces 81 counties in northern Wisconsin, northern Minnesota and Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

Establishment of an action planning commission for the upper Great Lakes will open the way for long-range planning to solve economic problems of the area which are too large or difficult to be dealt with on a local basis," Nelson said.

PARIS (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara says the U.S. nuclear stockpile in Europe will be twice its 1961 size by this time next year.

"We are now shipping such substantial amounts of nuclear warheads" that within 12 months the stockpile will be 100 per cent greater than in 1961," McNamara told newsmen after the meeting of defense ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization ended Tuesday.

He said in December 1961, he told the NATO ministers there were thousands of nuclear warheads on European soil.

He branded as "absolutely untrue" reports that the United States is planning to withdraw its nuclear muscle from Western Europe.

"There has been a steady increase in the stockpile over the last four years," McNamara said, adding that since January the number of nuclear weapons in Europe had increased by 10 per cent.

McNamara said the stockpile includes warheads for U.S. forces and those intended for use by Allied forces in case of war. All are in custody of U.S. troops as required by U.S. law.

Greeting Sent To Astronauts From U. of M.

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Astronauts James A. McDivitt and Edward H. White received praise and "best wishes" Tuesday from the president of their alma mater.

President Harlan Hatcher of the University of Michigan, where both projected crewmen of Thursday's Gemini flight once studied engineering, wired the two:

"...We salute you with special pride and hope for great success on your history-making exploration of outer space."

Hatcher designated Marvin L. Nichols, U-M executive vice president, and Wilbur Nelson, professor of aeronautical and astronautical engineering, as his representatives at the Cape Kennedy launch.

The recommendations were issued by the Republican Coordinating Committee, a 23-member council of GOP leaders created to spell out party policy.

Communists In Viet Nam Down 2 U.S. Navy Planes

Five American Crewmen Lost In Air Combat

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Communist antiaircraft fire shot down two U.S. Navy planes during raids on North Viet Nam today. A rescue pilot said there was no chance the five American crewmen could have survived.

Two more Americans — an officer and an enlisted man — were reported killed in a Viet Cong triple ambush near Pleiku, 220 miles northeast of Saigon. Two American enlisted men were reported wounded, one seriously, and more than 80 South Vietnamese troops were killed or missing.

The total of U.S. dead in combat in Viet Nam rose to 401.

Fulbright Will Back Johnson On Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright said today he has decided — reluctantly — to lead the fight for President Johnson's foreign aid bill in the Senate.

The chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee also said he will back Johnson's request that $88 million be added to the measure for the economic and social development of Southeast Asia.

Sen. Barry Goldwater said he was not pressing the point at the committee's closed session.

Three more sections of GOP policy were due today from National Chairman Ray C. Bliss and the party's congressional leaders, Sen. Everett M. Dirksen and Rep. Gerald R. Ford.

Fulbright said Tuesday he decided to manage the measure after all when he was unable to persuade anyone on his committee to take charge of it.

Besides, he said the committee had made some improvements — setting a two-year deadline for foreign aid in its present form, for instance.

The bill, passed by the House May 25, authorizes $3,352,170,000 in foreign aid for each of the next two years. Actually the sum is a ceiling for which a subsequent appropriation bill will provide funds.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said the measure may be called up Friday for the start of what could be lengthy debate.

Road Building Holdup Costly

LANSING (AP) —The Michigan Good Roads Federation today sent a resolution to Gov. George Romney and the legislature urging immediate action to prevent the loss of millions of dollars in federal highway aid.

The possible loss of federal aid results from a recent Supreme Court decision restricting the state's right to control the erection of signs within highway right of way.

The Bureau of Federal Roads has refused to approve pending state projects for federal aid until the state's control over right of way is restored.

The federation said the state is faced with the loss of $139 million a year in federal funds unless corrective action is taken within 90 days.

The State Highway Department has postponed scheduled bidding on some $4 million worth of road improvement projects. Thousands of workers could lose their jobs and Michigan's entire economy would be adversely affected, the federation said.

Fawns Better Off In Woods

Few persons would think of taking a newborn baby away from its mother. The same holds true for deer, Michigan Conservation officers said today.

"This is the season for fawns," one officer said. "People think that just because the mother isn't right next to her fawn that the fawn has been abandoned."

"That isn't the case. The mother is around somewhere."

"Fawns make nice pets for a few days," he continued, "but the usual result is that they will die being chased by dogs or will be hit by a car. They're much better off in the woods."

Conservation officers arrested two men Tuesday for having in their possession a fawn deer when the season is closed.

They were identified as John A. Buckland, Cornell, and Lloyd Nelson, 1403 Washington Ave., Escanaba.

Arraigned last night before Justice A. J. Mortier of Gladstone, both pleaded guilty to the charge and each paid fines of $10 plus $7.30 court costs.

"Deer and fawns are protected by law at this time of year," officers said. "All violators will be prosecuted."

Public Neglect Of School Need Report Feared

By JEAN WORTH

The citizens committee of 56 which found out in a two year study the size and cost of Michigan's problem in higher education told the Upper Peninsula at Northern Michigan University, Marquette, Tuesday night that it fears its findings may not influence the Legislature or the public.

Alvin M. Bentley of Owosso, who made the presentation with three other members of the committee after introduction by University President Dr. Edgar L. Harden, said that Committee Chairman Dan Karr of Jackson had written to the House and Senate of the Michigan Legislature on the report without result.

"They have gone ahead without us," said Bentley, who was chairman of the education section of the Constitutional Convention. "Our best hope is to influence individual legislators at the local level. As a former legislator I know that they listen more to voices from home.

Staffing Needed

Our recommendations are to the State Board of Education and the Legislature — the Governor has endorsed it and is ready to support it and its recommendations are supported by the State Board of Education, but it only proposes while the Legislature disposes."

Charles A. Boyer of Manistee, a member of the panel and of the Study Committee, said: "When the Legislature gets a package like this, it doesn't know what to do with it."

"I am not asking the Legislature," said Bentley. "The final decision is theirs. The State Board of Education of 8 members was elected last fall and given a per diem of $75 a day, but unless it is well staffed it can't do the job. The new superintendent of public instruction needs a staff to do his job. The Legislature has got to be generous if it wants the educational job done. If this is not done, our work is out of the window. We need a state plan for education."

Ivan Brown of Iron Mountain, a member of the panel and the Study Committee, said the first need of education in Michigan is state fiscal (tax) reform.

Bentley estimated that the Michigan Legislature's proposals for higher education for next year were $8 to $11 million short of what the Study Committee believes is adequate. The report was specific only in its recommendation that the state enlarge its community college program.

Michigan's present education system compares favorably with that of any in the country but it is not adequate for what is coming, said Bentley. Michigan has the choice of spending more money for education or of offering fewer educational opportunities to its increasing population.

The study found a 40 pct. increase in community and junior college enrollment in 1964 over 1963 in Michigan and a decline in the portion of total undergraduates enrolled in the four larger state institutions, although the portion still is very large.

Trends In Universities

The increase in the portion of undergraduates enrolled in the 6 smaller state institutions, including Northern and Tech in the U. P., is still relatively small and the portion decreased slightly in 1964. The steady and rather substantial decline in the portion of total students enrolled in the private colleges continues to increase and the number enrolled in them is substantial.

In addition to the undergraduates, 25 graduate students in education will receive master's degrees.

The Most Rev. Leo Binz, Archbishop of St. Paul, presented diplomas to graduates in ceremonies in O'Shaughnessy Stadium.

Sabor will be commissioned as a 2nd Lt. USAF after graduation and upon completion of USAF summer training in July.

Senators Hart and McNamara and Congressman Cleverh have introduced another bill to create a 67,000 acre Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore on Lake Superior from Munising to Grand Marais.

It promises to become one of the Upper Peninsula's major tourist attractions, providing access to one of the most beautiful areas of the Midwest and one which even the Upper Peninsula's own people have not seen up to now, except for visits to the Pictured Rocks or the Grand Sable Dunes.

A good deal of sparring has gone into preparations for this legislation. Senator Hart's first bill on the subject was apparently drafted by the National Park Service and it presented the view of the Isn't Nature Wonderful boys almost to the exclusion of economic considerations in the area apart from recreation business, although one pitch for the Lakeshore is that it will help the local economy.

* * * * *
Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co. is the biggest owner of the lands affected by the Lakeshore. It has given its cooperation from the first to the Lakeshore, agreeing that the shore area should be in public domain and for recreational use because of its great esthetic value, which transcends its value as a wood production area. But CCI has questioned the need for the large size of the Lakeshore as sketched out by federal planners and there has been some compromise on this in the process of developing the project.

CCI is reported happier about the current bill than the first one, but still questioning the need for the big "buffer" zone outside the park area where the government would set timber cutting standards. Any private enterprise in a similar situation would regard the government controls as a sword of Damocles, but a situation that can be lived with will probably be worked out, particularly in light of CCI's already high standards of forest management.

* * * * *
CCI has suggested that the federal government swap timberlands with it to create the Lakeshore and the new bill authorizes this. Although it may seem logical to the public that this be done, it creates great anguish among federal agencies. The swapping process would mean that lands would be taken from the Department of Agriculture, which operates the U.S. Forest Service, and given to the Department of Interior, which operates the National Park Service. These two agencies zealously guard their domains and prerogatives. The Forest Service opposes such action; saying it has been created to administer forest lands, not give them away.

This process has resulted in a huge program of acquisition of lands for federal usages instead of a system of swapping of government and private lands which would keep the two ownerships in balance. As the private lands go into the increasing government ownership, taxes rise, of course, because more land has been taken from the tax rolls and more government costs have been created to administer these lands.

* * * * *
The best situation would be for the Lakeshore to include the shoreline lands and the others of highest esthetic value and to have the rest of the area kept in private ownership and control and used for multiple purposes—to provide commercial wood from the forest and to so manage it that maximum recreational values were also obtained from the woodlands.

Recreational planners who are not employed by empire-building government agencies increasingly stress that the private sector of the nation's recreation business must be given more freedom and encouragement if our national needs are to be well served. Our politicians do not believe this yet; they think that the government discovered the recreation business and should have a monopoly in it. It is a wasteful, shortsighted view that will cause much mischief later.

The Doctor Says:

Drug Misuse Dangerous

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

The misuse of valuable drugs is becoming a serious problem. This applies particularly to the widespread current use of barbiturates ("goof balls") and emphetamines ("pep pills").

Both types of drug can be obtained legally only with a doctor's prescription but bootleg suppliers are all too common.

The amphetamines are abused by persons who can't bear to rest when they are tired. They burn the candle at both ends and stay awake long hours to the detriment of their health. Although these drugs will mask feelings of exhaustion and drowsiness, the result of their improper use is a depletion of energy reserves.

Amphetamines are taken legitimately by persons who suffer from narcolepsy (a sudden uncontrollable urge to sleep while engaged in a normal waking activity), polyuria, alcoholism, certain forms of depression and barbiturate poisoning.

Barbiturates are depressants. Because they are habit-forming they should not be taken for prolonged periods but they are of great value in breaking a vicious cycle of nervous tension causing insomnia and insomia aggravating the nervous tension. They are also used in combination in many preparations for lowering the blood pressure.

GUN SALE BAN

I wonder sometime if you pay much attention to what goes on.

In Wednesday's paper on Page 4 was the cartoon caption "Idiot's Delight" showing a man with a mail order rifle.

How are we to take this caption and picture? I suppose you want us to believe that the idiots buy guns by mail, or is it that a man is an idiot if he enjoys guns, or is it something that escapes us all?

Most of this current law and bills and wishful thinking was brought about by that tragic event in Dallas a year and a half ago—President Kennedy's assassination.

Do you think for one moment such a law as that forbidding sale of a gun by mail order would have prevented this death? Not for a second would it have.

Oswald could just as easily have gotten that gun at a Dallas sporting goods store and because it wasn't shipped by mail, maybe it wouldn't even have been noted on a sales slip, except to cash.

* * * * *

Has there ever been any killing prevented by the registration of a gun or the fact that it was purchased legally? How to Congress for a No vote.

many other deaths have we read about since that day in by too many letters from the Dallas, that were blamed on a mail order gun? Remember that the man who started it all (Oswald) was shot with a gun by a man who had a permit to carry it and who had purchased it legally . . .

The Second Amendment to the Constitution adopted in 1791 says the "right to keep and bear arms . . . shall not be infringed."

If we can't purchase an arm where we want, without registering it, when we want and as often as we may want, then we are being infringed upon.

* * * * *

The most deadly weapon invented by man is readily purchased and acquired by nearly anybody and also provides them with a means of escape, yet there is no such restriction, in fact the restrictions enforced are nearly completely absent.

Yes, the auto is the culprit and we all want a couple of them and just let anybody say we can't have one and watch the action.

I feel that this law now before our Congress is a law of sympathy and guilt at our failure adequately to protect our President . . . Let us not put the 95 per cent or more of our population that is innocent of law such as this. Let us have the press take a cool and serious look at the law and re-examine it and send our appeal to Congress for a No vote.

I hope you don't get flooded with many other deaths have we read about since that day in by too many letters from the opposition, as I know you will. This is not the most popular line of thinking at the present time.

Illinois Court Order Vacated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court said Tuesday a lower federal tribunal in Chicago should not have interfered in a legislative reapportionment proceeding in Illinois, and that the Illinois Supreme Court should proceed to supervise proceedings in the case.

The highest tribunal acted after a deadlock developed over whether a three-judge court in Chicago or the Illinois Supreme Court would take jurisdiction if the reapportionment problem was not solved.

It was in this situation that the three-judge federal court issued orders that were challenged by William J. Scott, state treasurer, and others.

The Supreme Court in an unsigned opinion said, "We believe that the District Court (the three-judge federal tribunal) should have stayed its hand."

Today's opinion added:

"We therefore vacate the order of the District Court dated May 7, 1965. The case is remanded with directions that the District Court enter an order fixing a reasonable time within which the appropriate agencies within the State of Illinois including its Supreme Court may validly redistribute the Illinois State Senate; providing that the same be accomplished within ample time to permit such plan to be utilized in the 1966 election of the members of the state Senate, in accordance with the provisions of the Illinois election laws."

Almost all who advanced under Trujillo and many who merely held their own are hated as Trujilloites by their less fortunate neighbors. In some ways this hatred takes on the attributes of a Hatfield-McCoy feud. Reds revel in hate.

Instead, their most recent moves indicate they're burrowing under now to build up strength for another day, mean while fighting a strong rear-guard action and continuing ready to take advantage of a break.

A relatively small number of Communist activists or cadres moved into this revolt with little popular Red support, a sketchy organization and few cells or units. The foreign Reds, however, helped fire things up and aided in keeping the fight going by making certain that considerable quantities of arms went to the fiery left and to emotional and undisciplined types of university students, teen-age youngsters and street gangs.

As the fighting continued, these Red activist-organizers were able to watch these new revolutionaries in action, determine which of the amateur fighters stood up under stress and combat and who folded. They were able to talk to them as comrades under stressful conditions, find which were sadly: "We don't want advisers or technical personnel. We want intelligent, mature Americans to come to our villages to live with us and counsel and coach us on how to live in a democratic society."

The story of a few years back will illustrate the point: The Dominican ambassador approached a government official in Washington, asked for 450 Peace Corps volunteers to be sent the next day.

"What kind of Peace Corps volunteers do you want?" he was asked.

The answer came bluntly and sadly: "We don't want advisers or technical personnel. We want intelligent, mature Americans to come to our villages to live with us and counsel and coach us on how to live in a democratic society."

The peasants have no understanding of how to do things for themselves. They don't know how to perform the simplest government actions. We have neither the administrators nor the institutions."

These Communist activists have taken these young men for better ones into "squads" and "platoons." They've begun developing sub-commanders, deputies, local activists. They've been able to determine which better today.

The situation is reportedly no better today.

Troopers Arrest Four Youths After Red Owl Breakin

Four young Delta County men, one of them a juvenile, were arrested by State Police Tuesday in connection with the weekend breaking and entering of the Rapid River Red Owl Store.

Police said that information provided by a Rapid River woman who noticed the youths leaving the store was instrumental in the arrests.

The juvenile was turned over to Probate Court, officers said. The other three, who were identified as Thomas Gibbons, Rte. 1, Ensign, Lowell Stone, Rte. 2, Rapid River, and Paul Erickson, Rte. 2, Rapid River, all were arraigned Tuesday before Justice Ross Davis of Gladstone.

Gibbons pleaded guilty to a charge of entering without permission and was sentenced to pay a $25 fine and $4.30 court costs or serve 30 days in the county jail. Stone also pleaded guilty to entering without permission and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 ($15 suspended), plus $4.30 costs or serve 15 days in jail.

Erickson plead guilty to a charge of being drunk and disorderly and received a $15 fine plus $4.30 costs or 15 days in jail.

Gibbons, Stone and the juvenile were also arrested in connection with a breakin at St. Charles Catholic Church, Rapid River, and Gibbons and Stone each pleaded guilty to a charge of entering without permission and each were fined $10, plus $4.30 costs and $5 restitution.

Application for a marriage license was made Tuesday at the County Clerk's office by Thomas Edward Adams, Dowagiac, Mich., and Theresa Marie Wils, Rte. 1, Rapid River.

Climbing Wayne Painter Held For Mental Checkup

DETROIT (AP) — Jack Hamilton, a 44-year-old painter from suburban Wayne, is being held for psychiatric observation Tuesday following two high climbs over the Memorial Day weekend.

Police said Hamilton climbed a 386-foot tower of the Ambassador Bridge, spanning the Detroit River to Canada, Monday after being talked down from the tower of radio station WWJ in suburban Southfield the day before.

Detroit Fire Lt. Richard Woodmansee talked Hamilton down from the bridge in 90 minutes.

"I told him we hadn't finished our breakfast yet," said Woodmansee. "I invited him to join us. He seemed like a nice guy and he was worried about the safety of the men who went up to get him down."

Hamilton, dressed in painter's clothes, had left behind in his car two rambling letters which police said listed grievances against Painters District Council No. 22. There had been apparent disagreement with the union over its taking Hamilton off high rise structures.

Gas Rates To Dip 30 To 45 Pct. On Sept. 1

Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. officials today told their pleasure in the large vote by which Escanaba electors on Tuesday authorized sale of the city gas plant to the company and said that work on the transfer would begin immediately and that on Sept. 1, when the system is cut over from propane gas to natural gas, the price of gas in Escanaba will be reduced from 30 to 45 per cent depending upon the class of usage. Heating customers are larger users of gas and get lower rates.

Hugh C. Daly, executive vice president of Michigan Consolidated, said "We're very pleased with the outcome of the vote and are now in a position to prove to you that your faith in us was well founded.

"We think the size of the vote indicates the interest of the people of Escanaba in natural gas and in issues of vital concern to the community. The more than 81 per cent support for the purchase of the facility is very indicative that the people want us as a member of the community. We hope to merit their support.

Lower Gas Rates

"We will let the contract for construction of the distribution system in Escanaba immediately as we already have the bids in for evaluation. Our pipe line construction is underway throughout the area and although we have had a lot of rain and are 4 or 5 days behind schedule, we have prospect of making up this delay if we get good weather. We expect to have gas at Escanaba by Sept. 1.

"Under our agreement with the City Council we will close the deal with them next week and turn over the check for $725,000 and take over and run the city's propane gas system. The city gas system employees will have opportunity to come with us or to stay with the city.

"When we take over we will charge the same rate as the city is charging for propane gas. When we introduce natural gas we will reduce the rates. Meantime we will improve the system and prepare it for conversion to natural gas. There will be need for minor adjustment of appliances."

Big Investment

Thomas P. Horton, Upper Peninsula district manager for Michigan Consolidated, said that construction of new mains and reconditioning work in Escanaba should begin the week of June 13. The utility will also begin inspecting the present system to determine location of any leaks.

Horton said that in addition to the $725,000 purchase price, Michigan Consolidated plans to invest approximately one million dollars in the Escanaba gas system over the next five years. About three-quarters of this sum would be spent in the next 12 months. Included in the construction work will be the installation of about 27 miles of new distribution and transfer gas mains, and 1,800 service lines to individual homes and business places.

Michigan Consolidated will spend over $200,000 repairing the old city gas mains and remodeling the gas plant."

Earlier estimates that government forces suffered more than 500 casualties during Quang Ngai fighting were lowered today when men listed as missing began returning.

New G.M. Boss Studied By Mail

DETROIT (AP) — Enrollment in correspondence school classes may jump when word gets around that General Motors' new president James M. Roche got a lot of his education via the mails.

The 58-year-old Roche, elected Tuesday as president of the world's largest manufacturing concern, never attended college. As a youth he supplemented his high school education with mail courses in business and commerce from a Chicago correspondence school.

His selection came as no surprise for, in recent weeks of speculation about who would succeed retiring GM president John F. Gordon, Roche's name almost always was the first one mentioned.

No Publicity

Although two of his 43 years in the automotive business were spent as Cadillac division's then one-man public relations department, Roche never sought personal publicity.

When his election became imminent, newsmen scurried to their files to dig out clips on Roche's background and found they were few and virtually all routine.

His modest, 112-page official GM biography told of his birth in Elgin, Ill. and his attendance at elementary and high schools there. He took his first job with an Aurora, Ill. utility company, meanwhile undertaking correspondence school courses.

In 1927, at the age of 21, he succumbed to the lure of the auto business and joined a Chicago Cadillac branch as a statistician. A year later, he was assistant manager of the branch. His climb in the auto business had begun.

His rise in Cadillac was climaxed in 1957 when he was named as its general manager and a vice president of General Motors. After 33 years service with the Cadillac division, he was tapped for corporate duties on June 1, 1960—five years to the day before he became GM president.

More Changes Coming

In January, 1964, he was named executive vice president, paving the way for him to succeed Gordon who reached the retirement age of 65 last month.

Roche's elevation is expected to touch off a series of job reassignments in GM's top echelon in the next few months. But he gave no inkling of these at a news conference in New York after his election. He was to return to his new Detroit desk today.

He told newsmen his first reaction to being named GM president was a feeling of being "overwhelmed by a sense of responsibility."

When a newsmen asked what compensation he would get compared with the $740,000 paid his predecessor Gordon last year, Roche laughed and said "It's cricket to ask, but I don't know." He drew $482,000 last year.

Roche said in answer to another question that he thought President Johnson "was doing a good job" in running the country for the best interests of all the people.

Man Of Mystery

Auto industry leaders were quick to praise Roche's selection. But, to the man in the street, Roche remained somewhat of a mystery. "What's he like?" was the question asked most frequently.

Chats with some of his co-workers, with his parish priest and some newsmen who knew Roche in his P.R. days supplied many of the answers.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Eugene Padlock, pastor of Holy Name parish in suburban Birmingham, recalls Roche as a devout Catholic who attends Mass and re-

Michigan Traffic Deaths Drop 29 Under 1964 Total

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan traffic deaths in May dropped 18 per cent compared with last May, the state police said Tuesday. The total of 135 was 28 fewer than in 1964.

It was the fourth month in five this year to show a decrease. The May total, however, was four higher than the May average for the previous 10 years.

The provisional five month total is 670, down 16 per cent from last year's 799.

The Escanaba City Council will hold a public hearing on assessments for street and alley improvements, water and sewer projects, at its meeting to be held at 8 p.m. Thursday at the City Hall.

The Council will also open bids for diesel and fuel oil; will receive a report and recommendation on bids for a compactor; and will give public hearing to a proposal to vacate an alley in Block 11 of the Wells Addition.

A report of the city canvassers on the special city election held Tuesday on the proposition to sell the gas system will be received by the Council; and James Pascoe will present to the Council a report on plans to construct an apartment building on S. 8th St.

An ordinance to regulate installation of gas and oil appliances in the city will be given first reading; the Council will have before it a communication from the Chamber of Commerce on the need for a recreation building.

A recommendation of the Planning Commission to acquire Block 5 of the Kurz Addition to the City of Escanaba is also to come to the Council. The block contains 12 lots and is between 22nd and 23rd Aves. south of the Athletic field. The land would come into city ownership through a land exchange with the Department of Conservation, and could be used for recreation or other purposes.

Worker Rides Train 5 Miles With Foot Caught

LACKAWANNA, N.Y. (AP) — "It was a ghastly experience," said Joseph Martin of his forced five-hour rail ride from Erie, Pa., to Lackawanna after his foot became trapped in a freight-car coupling.

The 37-year-old construction worker suffered a crushed right foot in the Sunday episode. He was reported in fair condition at a hospital here.

Martin said he was taking a short cut to his auto in an Erie freight yard. His foot caught as he climbed over the coupling between two freight cars.

Before Martin could get help, the train started moving, the coupling tightened and it was 2½ hours before he could free his right foot.

He clung to a railroad-car ladder for the last leg of the 100-mile journey.

Beauty Tips

TAKE IT EASY IN THE SUN

Tanning takes on a very personal tone each season. Whether you burn and peel constantly or turn a handsome gold-brown in two days depends upon your skin type. However, sun lotions can make a difference. New formulations with silicones and moisturizers screen out sun rays if you want this and the moisturizers keep the skin from getting too dry and leathery. One warning from dermatologists: constant deep tanning (that mahogany look) leads to rapid skin aging. Be prudent during your sunning days.

HOW TO STAY TAN

Plan to hold onto your tan this summer. A new dry skin cream works on the principle that a tan lasts longer if the skin gets a daily dose of a moisturizer. The cream cuts down on drying and flaking of sun-browned cells. This means your tan doesn't slough away so rapidly.

TUNA SALAD in aspic rings has zest.

Tuna Salad Buffet

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A bridal shower should be intimate, only close friends of the bride being invited. Shower gifts are not the same as wedding gifts, remember, and therefore should not be expensive. The gifts are placed together on a table. When all guests have arrived, the bride-to-be opens her gifts and everybody "ohs" and "ahs" happily. Then come the refreshments. Not before.

Keep the refreshments simple, delicate and appropriate to the spirit of the occasion. This double ring aspic with tuna, lobster or chicken salad is a good choice. Serve tea sandwiches cut in heart shape, or double rings with it.

Aspic Rings
(Makes 12 servings)

6 envelopes unflavored gelatin
6 cups cold water, divided
6 cans (8 ounces each) tomato sauce
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
2 teaspoons Worcestershire
2 teaspoons prepared horseradish
1/4 teaspoon Tabasco

Sprinkle gelatin over 3 cups water in a deep saucepan. Place over low heat, stirring constantly, until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat; stir in remaining 1 cup cold water and tomato sauce. Blend together lemon juice and mustard; add to aspic with remaining ingredients. Pour into two 5-cup ring molds; chill until firm. Unmold; fill centers with tuna salad.

Tuna Salad

4 cans (6 1/2 or 7 ounces each) tuna in vegetable oil
2 cups chopped celery
1 tablespoon minced onion
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 teaspoons prepared mustard
1/4 cup mayonnaise

Combine tuna, celery and onion in a mixing bowl. Blend lemon juice and mustard into mayonnaise. Add to tuna mixture and toss lightly. Spoon into centers of aspic rings.

SHORT-SKIRTED FASHION

Every gal who likes the new short-skirted fashions will be pleased to know that there is on the market a panty-slip only 19 inches long. Its divided skirt permits you to wear brief skirts comfortably and more modestly.

DISGUISE WET HAIR

Going on a seaside vacation this summer? Try one of the pert kerchiefs with snap-on fake bangs as a disguise for hair that has become wet after a swim. They make great head coverups for the beach.

You can make a delicious vegetable soup with small amounts of cooked leftover vegetables plus canned stewed tomatoes.

If you've switched from cream to milk in your coffee (for weight-watching purposes) you might enjoy heating the milk, French fashion, before adding it to the coffee. If the coffee is really strong, you can add a fair portion of milk.

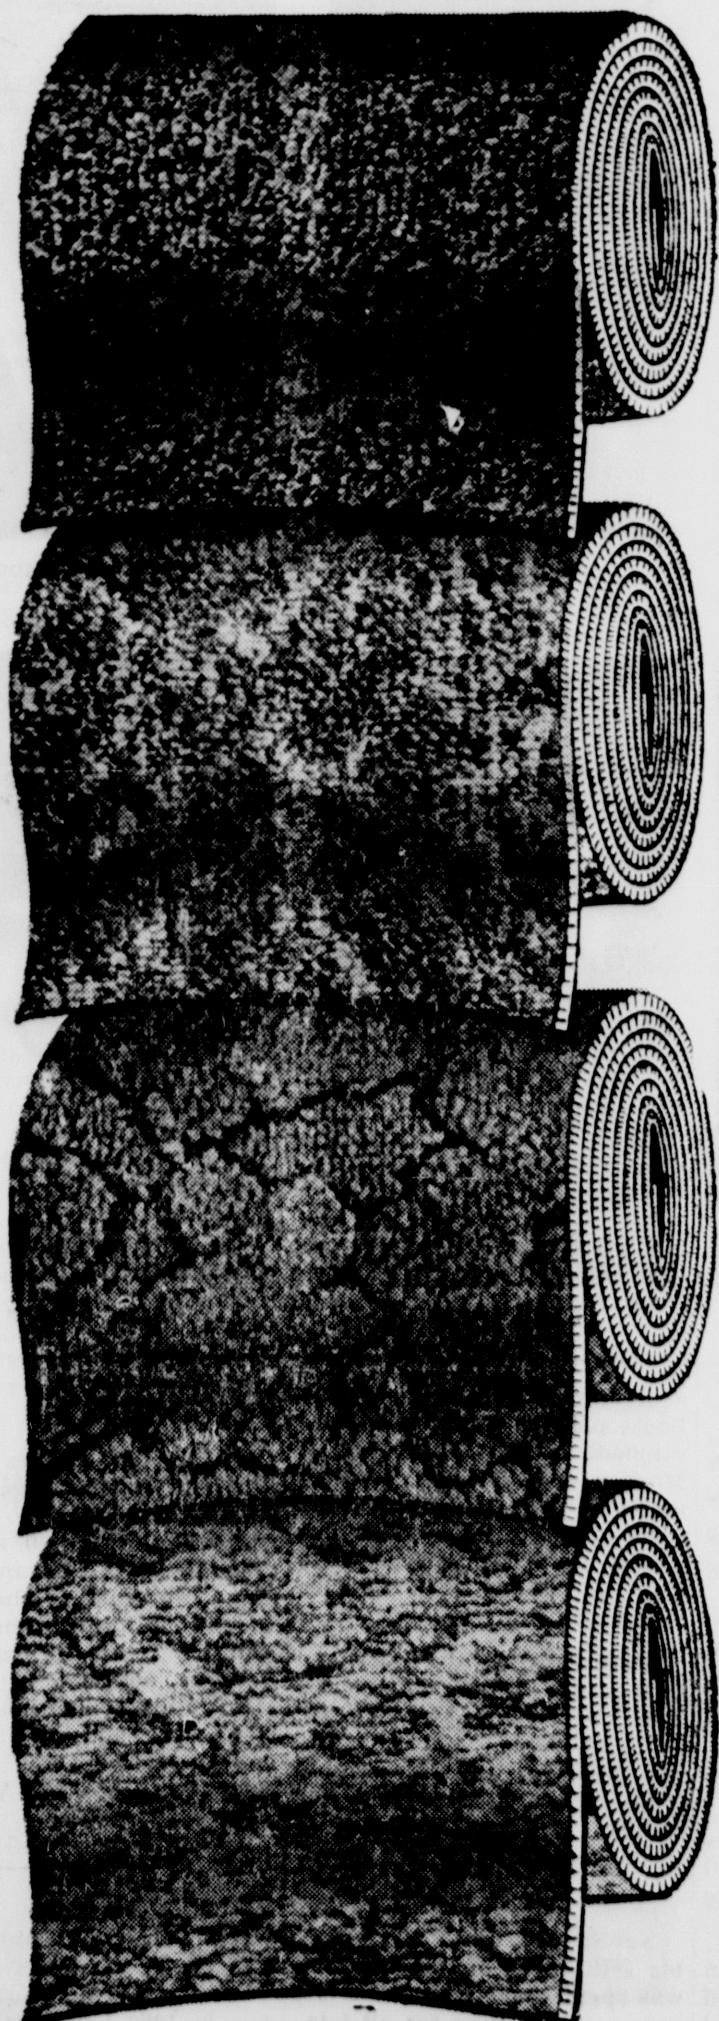

Use some of the trimmings from the fat around pork chops in which to brown the meat.

Pirates Stretch String As Veale Strikes Out 16

By The Associated Press

If Bob Veale can strike out 16 batters when he's tired, how many can he strike out when he's fresh?

The giant Pittsburgh pitcher may get a chance to answer that question before too long, and the reply could be a major league strikeout record.

Veale fanned 16 Phillies Tuesday night as the Pirates defeated Philadelphia 4-0 for their 12th straight victory. Rain delayed the game twice for a total of two hours and five minutes.

Asked why the rain affected him, Veale said:

"It hindered me. It made me a little tired."

He was so tired he came within two of equaling the major league record of 18 strikeouts, set by Bob Feller in 1938 and tied by Sandy Koufax in 1959 and 1962.

Veale's 16 were the most in the majors this season, broke his own team record of 15 and increased his season total to 77, tying him with Don Drysdale for second place in the National League.

The 6-foot-6 left-hander, whose 250 strikeouts led the majors last season, also recorded his third shutout, matching Bob Gibson's major league-leading total, and gained his third straight complete game, all in the Pirates' winning streak.

Veale, now 5-2, has allowed only two runs in those three victories and has sliced his earned run average from 3.74 to 2.70.

He fanned power hitters Dick Stuart and Rich Allen three times each and received a standing ovation when he fanned Tony Gonzalez in the ninth inning for his 16th strikeout.

In other NL games, Milwaukee edged Houston 2-1, St. Louis nipped San Francisco 2-1 and New York whipped Chicago 10-5. In the only American League contest, Los Angeles beat Boston 4-1.

The Pirates, in extending the longest winning streak in the majors this season, knocked out starter Art Mahaffey in the first inning, scoring two runs on singles by Bob Bailey and Bill Virdon. Willie Stargell's sacrifice fly and a single by Jerry Lynch. Only one Phillie reached third. Consecutive home runs by Milwaukee's Hank Aaron and Mack Jones against Hal Wooton.

Toledo Rally Produces Win

TOLEDO (AP) — A bases-loaded home run by Mickey Harrington and a two-run blast by Roger Repoz highlighted the Toledo Mud Hens' come-from-behind 8-6 victory over the Jacksonville Suns in International League baseball Tuesday night.

Harrington connected as a pinch hitter in the seventh inning with the Mud Hens trailing, 6-2, and tied the score.

The Hens broke the 6-6 deadlock in the eighth when Elvio Jimenez doubled and came home on Bill Roman's single.

Lambeau, Packer Founder, Dies While Mowing Lawn

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Earl L. (Curly) Lambeau, founder of the Green Bay Packers and only coach ever to win three consecutive National Football League titles, died Tuesday, apparently of a heart attack. He was 67.

Lambeau turned Green Bay, then a town of only 37,000, into the crown capital of the NFL by guiding the Packers to the championship in 1929, 1930 and 1931. He won three more titles before ending a 31-year Packer career in 1949.

Lambeau collapsed late Tuesday while mowing a lawn at the home of a friend at Sturgeon Bay, 40 miles northeast of Green Bay. He was dead when a fire rescue squad arrived.

A pioneer in the NFL, Lambeau was credited with turning the forward pass into a potent pro weapon while coach and quarterback of the Packers in the 1920s.

He was one of 17 charter members of the National Professional Football Hall of Fame.

Lambeau compiled a 236-111-23 record at Green Bay with only three losing seasons in more than three decades. But two of them came back to back in 1948 and 1949 and he resigned early the following year in a factional feud with a younger Packer front office.

Lambeau moved to the Chicago Cardinals as coach for two years and bowed out of the NFL at the end of 1954 after three seasons as coach of the Washington Redskins.

The Packers' founder was cutting grass with a power mower when a Sturgeon Bay photographer, Herb Reynolds, approached. Lambeau told Reynolds he needed the exercise.

Suddenly, Reynolds said, Lambeau paled and collapsed.

Friends and former players showered the football trailblazer with tributes Tuesday night.

"I doubt if the league would exist today without the likes of Lambeau," said George Halas, owner-coach of the Chicago Bears.

"His vision and foresight made the Packers and the National Football League what they are today," said Bucks Goldenberg, Green Bay restaurant owner who played guard for Lambeau from 1933 to 1945.

The Packers were the children of a 1919 street-corner conversation between Lambeau and a friend. They were born as a semi-pro team financed by a packing house. Lambeau recruited high school friends. At the end of the first season, each player received $16.75.

Green Bay joined the American Professional Football Association in 1921. The next year, the association became the National Football League with Green Bay as a charter member.

Lambeau was quarterback for the Packers for the first decade and threw 45 passes in one game in an era when football was a ground sport.

He led giant-killing Green Bay to NFL titles again in 1936, 1939 and 1944. Green Bay, although grown to 62,000, remains by far the smallest entry in the NFL.

After five seasons at Chicago and Washington, Lambeau quit with a final victory — a 30-27 triumph for his College All-Stars over the Cleveland Browns in 1935.

Lambeau was a native of Green Bay and played college football at Notre Dame.

Funeral services were set tentatively for Saturday at Green Bay.

He is survived by one son, Donald E.; a brother, Oliver B., and a sister, Mrs. Frances Beatrice Evrard, all of Green Bay.

Others who must battle their way into the tournament, to be played June 17-20 over the Bellerive Country Club course in St. Louis, include former Open winners Cary Middlecoff, Tommy Bolt and Lew Worsham; ex-PGA Champions Denny Shute, Jack Burke Jr., Lionel Hebert, Jay Hebert, Chandler Harper, Jim Ferrier, Doug Ford, Jerry Barber, and Walter Burkemo, and two-time U.S. Amateur champion Deane Beman.

A total of 459 golfers — 348 pros and 111 amateurs — will play for 119 places at 13 sectional sites next Monday and Tuesday. Survivors will join 31 exempt players, including defending champion Ken Venturi, at Bellerive's first tee Thursday, June 17.

This will mark the Open's first tournament under the relaxed format of one round a day for four days. Previously, the final two rounds were played on the last day.

Amateur Sports War Full Blast

NEW YORK (AP) — The war between the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union over control of amateur athletics in the United States is going full blast again today. The big loser could be the track team the United States will send against the Russians at Kiev July 31.

The end to an uneasy truce between the organizations came Tuesday when Everett D. Barnes, president of the NCAA, warned its members to boycott the National AAU Championships at San Diego on June 26-27.

Barnes declared in a special memorandum from Hamilton, N.Y., where he is director of athletics at Colgate University, that participation of college-eligible athletes in the AAU Championships would place the student's institution in violation of the NCAA by-laws and subject to enforcement procedures.

Barnes emphasized that there would be a violation "whether or not the student represents his institution, a club or competes unattached."

This placed in jeopardy the prospect of a strong U.S. team being selected for the dual meet with the Soviet Union. The first two finishers in each event at the AAU Championships traditionally have been named as the U.S. team.

Young People Held On Beer Party Charges

A group of 19 young people were surprised in a beer party on the weekend, on the Manistique River bank south of the Go-Kart track.

Alan Gauthier, 21, of S. Second St., was charged with furnishing beer to minors and 13 were charged with being minors in possession and were to be arraigned at 3 p.m., Tuesday. One involved was 15 and two, 16.

Those charged with being minors in possession are Harold Archey, Michael Dissing, Peter Orhanen, Joseph Davis Jr., Rita Paquette, Robert Hedberg, Roland Fountain, Penny Braun, Laura Lee Cousineau, Mildred Bunker, Robert Weber, John Strable Jr., David DeMers, David Corson and Ronald Haberstitch of Gulliver.

Two other young persons were apprehended for beer possession in Indian Lake State Park, by the park manager, and were referred to State Police. They were Doug Garvin and Leland J. McManus.

The group on the Manistique River was spotted by Public Safety officers making property checks near the Wyman tree nursery. State Police were called to aid and provided three cars and officers to go with city officers. The party was raided at 3 p.m. The young people fled, but most were apprehended, officers said. Reports circulated after that some swam across the river. A few eluded officers.

The 15 1/2-gallon keg was slightly more than half full when officers confiscated it.

Pleas of guilty were received from David Demers, Robert Weber, Mildred Bunker, Penny Braun, Roland Fountain, Robert Hedberg, Joseph Davis Jr., and Harold Archey. Those who have not appeared must do so immediately upon return from college studies. Fines of $100 and 30 days in jail were suspended and $25 fines and $4.30 costs with one year probation were imposed. Automatic 30-day jail sentences will result from any city or state law violation in the probation period.

The Laura Lee Cousineau case was continued for further investigation.

Alan Gauthier pleaded guilty Tuesday afternoon on the furnishing charge and is to be sentenced today.

The three juveniles are being referred to probate court. No parents appeared with the young people at court.

Manistique NewsFreedom Struggle Cited In Memorial Day Activities

An address by the Rev. L. D. Coxon of Free Methodist church on mankind's continuing struggle for freedom capped a Memorial Day observance arranged here by the All-Vets committee.

A parade from Fifth Street to the courthouse lawn memorial gun began the activities. The National Guard firing squad fired salutes over the World War 1 monument and at the memorial gun.

The high school band, Drum and Bugle Corps, Jobs Daughters, National Guard, Veterans and Boy and Girl Scouts were among those participating in the parade.

W. L. Hentschell was master of ceremonies for the rites, during which veteran group representatives placed memorial flowers and flag on a grave representative of those of the persons who made the supreme sacrifice.

"We wouldn't have to fight if it were not for aggressors who attempt to bring us to submission. We cannot stand idly by and believe that what happens to another does not make any difference, the Rev. Coxon noted in his address. A recitation of "In Flanders Field," a World War 1 poem was included.

Humphrey Talks In East Lansing

EAST LANSING (AP) — Vice President Hubert Humphrey lashed out sharply Tuesday at what he called a curious misconception that the Communist Viet Cong "is a great idealistic movement."

"These are no reformers, these are destroyers, assassins," Humphrey declared, citing raids on South Vietnamese agricultural stations, medical clinics and murders of Vietnamese agricultural stations, medical clinics and murders of Vietnamese local officials and teachers.

He told some 2,000 Michigan State University students, "The enemy is not in Washington, it's in Hanoi and Peking and we ought to know it."

He described Communist strategy as "the biggest real estate operation in the world's history," adding:

"We know now that most Communist regimes do not desire to blow the world to pieces. They just want to pick it up piece by piece."

Humphrey spoke in the same auditorium where some 2,500 students recently attended a "teach-in" protest of U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

This time, however, the crowd paid $1 each to support Michigan State's People-To-People Association, a student group, in its plan to adopt the South Vietnamese village of Long Yen and aid its residents.

Humphrey's speech was interrupted five times by applause. With him on the program was Carl Rowan, director of the U.S. Information Agency.

Humphrey said the United States learned in the 1930s "you can't appease an aggressor" and learned also "of the consummate evils of racism."

"If we didn't learn that from Hitler, Mussolini and Tojo then we have learned nothing," he said.

"We will not withdraw, we will not abandon the people of Viet Nam," he added. "We shall keep our word there so that people elsewhere will know we'll keep our word there, too."

"A withdrawal by us would vindicate the Chinese thesis that militancy pays off—and it would discredit the Soviet thesis of peaceful coexistence."

HOSPITALITY

(The Monroe, Mich., newspaper, reported that Monroe Mayor William Agusta and Mrs. Agusta had been most favorably impressed by Escanaba on their recent Michigan Week visit here.)

"The red-carpet treatment" was extended to Mayor and Mrs. William J. Agusta during their stay in Escanaba recently.

"We were particularly impressed with the cordiality with which we were greeted," Mayor Agusta said.

Mayor and Mrs. Agusta spent the time in the Upper Peninsula city as part of the mayor exchange of Michigan Week.

He said they were "treated royally" during the entire trip. A radio interview, tours of the City Hall and County Building, a plane ride and luncheons were on the agenda, Mayor Agusta said.

"It was just marvelous," was the expression of Mrs. Agusta. She said, "I have never seen such hospitality. We left with the feeling we had known the residents of Escanaba all of our lives."

The airplane ride, which took the Agustas over the city and part of Lake Michigan, was Mrs. Agusta's first experience in flying. She said she particularly enjoyed it.

Mayor Agusta spoke of the park at the end of the main street in Escanaba. "It must have taken a lot of hard work but it is certainly beautiful." He said the park contains a swimming beach, a picnic section and a marina.

TASTE OF LIMPU

(This article, written by Charley Symonds, was published in the Detroit News. Symonds is editor of the Munising News.)

To a Finn there isn't a sweeter taste than that of Limpu, and a slice of it is like a breath of air from home.

Limpu is a heavy round-shaped, sour bread made from coarse rye flour and white flour. Some Finnish women embellish it with potato water, thoroughly mashed potatoes, a bit of shortening and sometimes caraway seeds.

"Everyone who tries to make it uses a different recipe—they are not all the same," says Mrs. John Korpela, of Munising, who occasionally bakes a loaf for herself.

But for Hans Hallinen who operates a bakery in Trenary, Limpu is a big business and a "secret" one.

Until a few years ago, Hallinen made daily shipments of the bread around the state. The discontinuance of train service ended that delivery system and now he depends on trucks and sometimes private cars of friends to deliver the goods.

Hallinen, 48, is the only baker in his place, but his wife and four hired women help him wrap and pack the bread for market. They turn out 130 loaves a day.

Limpu isn't just another loaf of bread, say those who eat it. Its ingredients are a little out of the ordinary, but it's the "know-how" that makes it "special." Everyone who knows how to make it agrees to that, but not many people know that secret, even among Finns.

Hallinen's formula may vary from others, but he isn't telling anyone anything about it. Originally the recipe was brought to the U. P. by the parents of Jorma Syrjanen about 80 years ago from Finland.

They passed it on to Syrjanen, who used it in bakeries he operated here and in Chatfield, 12 miles away. Jorma quit the business in 1940, and in 1950 sold it to Hallinen, with the formula as part of the deal.

"There isn't anything too secret about the recipe for Limpu," says Hallinen. "I could give it to you, but the stuff you make wouldn't be Limpu. It is the 'know-how' that makes it. Lots of people have tried to make it— even professional bakers—but what they put out just hasn't been Limpu."

Knowing the exact proportions of the items which go into the bread, how to knead it and for how long, when to cool the dough and at what temperature—and for how long—those are just parts of the "secret." All the better Limpu-makers hand-shape their loaves, and do not use bread pans.

P & H Girls Club Give $250 To Kennedy School

The Harnischfeger Girls Club, also known as the P&H Girls Club, at a recent meeting decided to sponsor a number of projects for a worthy cause and in weeks of effort raised funds for this purpose.

At a special meeting to decide on charities the new John F. Kennedy School For Retarded Children was chosen and a check for $225 was presented to the Retarded Children's Association by Miss Carole Lee, club president.

Miss Lee, personal secretary to Raymond Fish, manager of the Escanaba Harnischfeger plant, said that the girls were proud to help bolster the sagging finances of the Kennedy School, which is operated completely through charities for the benefit of the retarded children of Delta County and hoped that a generous public would continue to support this worthy cause.

Many applications have been received for the next school year including one from an airman from Scotts Air Force Base who will apply for transfer to K.I. Sawyer Base and move his family to Escanaba if the school can accept his child. "Accepting these children will require the services of another teacher and it is hoped that a generous public will come to our aid in time to solve our financial difficulties and allow us to accept these children, who deserve an education to the best of their ability," said Albert J. Valind, financial chairman.

He will be awarded a BA in Industrial Education.

The poinsettia, unlike such ancient Christmas symbols as holly and mistletoe, originated in tropical America. Joel Robert Poinsett, U. S. Minister to Mexico in 1825, so admired the wild plant that he brought the first specimens to the United States.

Drink-American Edict Ridiculed

LONDON (AP) — Europeans and Americans living abroad have greeted President Johnson's drink-American policy with reactions ranging from enthusiastic approval to whoops of laughter.

Said Angier Biddle Duke, American ambassador to Spain:

"Many Europeans look upon the United States as a new nation still unable to do great things. It will come to them as a surprise that we can produce good wines, and do."

At Dijon, heart of France's burgundy-producing region, a spokesman for the Association of Fine Wines of Burgundy commented:

"This seems to be an indication of bad humor on the part of Mr. Johnson. In French embassies, they serve American bourbon whiskey, even Coca-Cola—and nobody dreams of stopping that."

Earlier in the week, White House sources said that since August 1964, no French or other foreign wines had been served at the executive mansion. The sources said the drink-American policy was being put into effect at the State Department and in American missions abroad.
